

Tour 2010

GEOFF WILLIAMS
USA

This artist comes from Minneapolis (USA). For over 20 years he is professional magician. Geoff has won several international awards; he "performs" with both stage and close-up magic.

His two latest DVD "Miracles for mortal" has received rave reviews worldwide. The trick based on the effect of Larry Jennings "I Hate David Copperfield" was No. 2 on the list of bestsellers at the distributor's Magic Murphy last year.

Geoff performs regularly at famous Magic Castle in Hollywood and go in all the world to present his lecture. Its very commercial magic, perfectly suited to any kind of public and presents with great humor and comedy effects

He was hired in the month of November 2009 in London at Congress Ron Macmillan. It's a real opportunity to be able to offer this artist this year at your club!

During the lecture he will demonstrate and teach, among other things:

The famous trick 'i hate D. Copperfield, "a version of the oil and water, original way to produce the sound of a radio Fm from, any object (a must!). As for other effects with objects of everyday life ...

He will show you the routine "devastation" who is considered as the best impromptu effect with cards.

The content of his lecture can both interest in the young than the old generation of magicians...
